Merry Jane

REAL estate maven Jane Goldman, the daughter of late industry titan Sol Goldman, is in contract to buy a three-bedroom, 14th-floor unit at 10 Sullivan, the new Flatiron Building-shaped condo designed by Cary Tamarkin (inset) that will be the tallest residential building in SoHo. Developed by Property Markets Group and Madison Equities, the unit is in contract for just under $10 million. Goldman, we hear, loved the unit's private dressing room. The brokers in the off-market deal were Elliman's Andrew Anderson, Emily Sertic and Jared Seligman.
